Among the various teaching materials employed in school-based education, student worksheets in the form of books, commonly referred to as LKS, are deemed particularly effective for facilitating English language acquisition across the four fundamental language skills. Regrettably, at present, the student worksheet (LKS) employed in madrasas is the same as those distributed to public schools, lacking the specialised LKS tailored for students in Islamic religious-based educational institutions. Consequently, the content provided in these LKS materials does not incorporate Islamic values. This research has the objectives of (1) To explain the the form of the student worksheet currently used by MA Darul Amal and (2) To describe the needs of students at MA Darul Amal regarding student worksheets integrated with Islamic values. In this Research, the writer used qualitative as research approach with descriptive qualitative method in which research data were collected in various ways, namely by questionnaire, interviews, and documentation. The result shows that the students' worksheets currently used by MA Darul Amal Mukomuko students to learn descriptive texts is not integrated with Islamic values. Furthermore, the writer has also explained how the description of MA Darul Amal students' situation and needs for LKS is integrated with Islamic values.

Keyword: students worksheet, Islamic value, need analysis

menunjukkan bahwa LKS yang digunakan siswa MA Darul Amal Mukomuko untuk pembelajaran teks deskriptif tidak terintegrasi dengan nilai-nilai Islam. Selanjutnya penulis juga memaparkan bagaimana gambaran situasi dan kebutuhan siswa MA Darul Amal terhadap LKS yang diintegrasikan dengan nilai-nilai Islam.

Kata kunci: analisis kebutuhan, lembar kerja siswa, nilai-nilai islam
